Historical Society to meet January 20

The next meeting of the Carbondale Historical Society will take place on January 20 at 7:30 p.m. in Room 301, City Hall.

Plans will be finalized for the upcoming official opening of Room 901, recently refurbished through the efforts of the Committee to Restore City Hall. The gala event will take place on February 6 from 2 to 5 p.m. At that time there will be a photographic exhibit on display in Room 301. The 1982 Metro Photography contest winners will be displayed, and the exhibit will be shown throughout northeastern Pennsylvania after it leave Carbondale.

On February 16, the Historical Society will again meet with a board of directors meeting following the regular meeting.
